

Christopher Rausch

“Building & Sustaining Effective Relationships”

- ✓ Key skills to improving existing relationships
- ✓ Success techniques for developing new partnerships
- ✓ Understanding generational differences
- ✓ Character traits of successful relationships
- ✓ Social media tips

As either a professional speaker to many, or as a personal development specialist to one, Christopher’s enthusiasm and positivity are absolutely infectious. With his entertaining ability to capture and hold the attention of his audience, he is able to share extremely valuable information you can use immediately! Christopher’s passion is helping people realize their fullest potential in all areas of life.

In addition to being a successful business entrepreneur and published author, Christopher is also the Materials Manager for PADI Americas. He manages a diverse team who handle the daily operations of Distribution, Print, and Mail Services. During his 16 years at PADI, he held many of the positions for which he now oversees. Christopher’s professional credentials include a Bachelor’s degree in Business Management and a Master’s in Organizational Management. Recently, Christopher was elected as the President for his Toastmasters chapter.

In his spare time, Christopher enjoys teaching kids at his local Olive Crest organization life building skills.

You can learn more about Christopher at (www.master-motivators.com)

